

INJURIES FATAL TO CHARLES MOORMAN

Rushville - Contractor Dies This Morning at 3:10 O'clock as Result of Collision

OPERATION WAS PERFORMED

Effort to Relieve Pressure on His Brain Futile—Resident of City
45 Years

Charles G. Moorman, age 72 years, who was fatally injured Wednesday noon, when his bicycle on which he was riding ran into an automobile, died this morning at 3:10 o'clock at the family home, 423 West First street, never regaining consciousness after the accident.

An operation was performed shortly before midnight in an effort to relieve pressure on the brain, due to the fracture, but the injuries were of too serious a nature to overcome.

The accident happened at noon Wednesday at Second and Jackson streets, when Mr. Moorman was attempting to turn south and is said to have failed to see the automobile driven by Raymond Morrell, 918 West Third street. Both were going in the same direction, and the machine was attempting to pass him, when it is said that Mr. Moorman turned his bicycle and struck the automobile. He was thrown to the pavement on his head, and also received a broken left arm.

The driver of the machine, seeing that an accident could not be avoided, swerved his machine into the curb, crushing down two wheels. He was held blameless for the accident by police officers. Dr. J. M. Lee, coroner, will also be required to investigate the accident and report on it.

Mr. Moorman was a well known man of this city, having been engaged for years in the cement and concrete contracting business. He was born in Oldenburg, but had resided in Rushville for 45 years. He was married to Miss Charlotte Carr of Metamora and next January 19, they were anticipating the celebration of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Besides the widow, he is survived by four children, three sons, Francis of Richmond, Ind., Albert and Ed of Florida and one daughter, Miss Mary Moorman, also of Florida. Miss Moorman and Mrs. Albert Moorman are enroute here. The deceased also is survived by seven grand children.

He leaves four brothers and one sister, who are William Moorman of Los Angeles, Frank Moorman of Cincinnati, George Moorman of Brandon, Wisc., Ferdinand Moorman

MC'CRAY WANTS TO GET OUT AND PAY OFF DEBTS

All That Former Governor Asks in Petition for Clemency on File in Washington

REMISSION OF FINE SOUGHT

Washington, Aug. 13—(U.P.)—To get out of prison and pay back his debts, is all that Former Governor Warren T. McCray of Indiana asks in his application for clemency placed before Attorney General Sargent, it was learned today.

The delegation of friends who presented McCray's case here made plain they would be satisfied with parole or commutation of sentence in case a full pardon is denied by the president.

The first consideration is to acquit McCray, although their purpose could be better served if citizenship was restored to the former governor, it was said.

McCray believes he can recruit his losses in ten years, although he would be working under handicap unless a pardon is granted. Remission of a $10,000 fine imposed, is sought so that he can start with a clean slate.

Attorney General Sargent has asked District Attorney Ward of Indianapolis for a report on the case, setting forth the opinion of Former District attorney Homer Elliott, Judge Anderson, the trial judge, and other persons familiar with the case.

TO RETURN NEW INDICTMENT

Grand Jury to be Called For New Inquiry Into Dollings Affairs

Columbus, O., Aug. 13—(U.P.)—A special grand jury will be called to return new indictments against Wm.
C. Benham and Dwight Harrison, officials of the R. L. Dollings company, of Ohio, whose conviction and sentence of twenty years was set aside by the appellate court, U. S.
District Attorney H. E. Man announced today.

Man said the convictions which also carried $5,000 fines were set aside because of technicalities in the first indictments. Benham and Harrison were accused of misusing the mails in the sale of stock in Dollings subsidiaries.

PEOPLE BEING "ELECTROCUTED"

Depend Too Much on Use of Electricity, Sen. Ferris Says, Discussing Trend of the Times

SPEAKS TO KIWANIANS

United States Senator From Michigan Declares America is Becoming Legless People

The Kiwanis club at the regular luncheon today noon, was favored with an address by United States Senator Woodbridge N. Ferris, who also is a former governor of the state of Michigan. Sen. Ferris came here to address the chautauqua audience this afternoon, and was entertained at luncheon by the Kiwanis club.

Senator Ferris is also a noted educator and has been president of the Ferris Institute for 41 years, with his lifetime interest being taken in young people and their educational problems.

It was along this line that he addressed the Kiwanians today, deploring many conditions that exist in the present day educational system.
He pointed out that people are actually being "electrocuted," and depend too much on the use of electricity.

In this respect he stated that America was almost becoming a "legless people," with automobiles to transport and carry people, so that they can scarcely walk a block.
Young people, especially, he said, are not being educated in the right direction in this respect, because the progress of the country is too great, and parents are not holding them in check, as they were held in check in their youth. Things are made too easy for the young folk of today, he said.

Education is not what one learns in a college, university or school, or from books, he said, but it is the real education that can be applied and put into effect, that is worthwhile. Some people, he said, believe an education is necessary to enable one to "get by with," and reduce energy.

It is the education that is applied in after life, he said, that makes one a success. He illustrated his point by comparing a wild duck and a domestic duck. The brain, he said, of the wild duck, is heavier and better developed, because the bird is thrown upon its own resources to fight its own battles, seek its own food, and fly for protection.

The tame or domestic duck has no such worries. He is cared for and fed, and his brain is not required to be so active. A domestic duck almost loses its power to fly. It is "more cultured," or better "educated," but the wild duck applies his learning, and shifts for himself.

R. E. Jenkins, a local bond salesman, was introduced as a new member of the club today.

LINEMAN ELECTROCUTED

Indianapolis, Aug. 13—Accidentally touching a high voltage wire, James Barret, lineman, was electrocuted late yesterday.

Capt. Samsel of the Salvation Army of Peru, Ind., and a former captain in this city, will conduct the services at the Salvation Army church this evening. Capt. Samsel and his wife are visiting in this city

THE COVERED WAGON

PURE BRED DUROC JERSEY SALE DRAWS A BIG CROWD

Col. Iglehart of Elizabethtown, Ky., Auctioneer, Comments on Improved Farm Conditions

SALE FIRST OF THE SEASON

C. M. Trowbridge's sale of pure bred Duroc Jersey hogs at Woodland farm, three-fourths of a mile west of Mays, attracted a large crowd Wednesday and good prices prevailed, the bred sows and gilts averaging $67.50 a head and the spring boars over $36.00.

Col. Iglehart of Elizabethtown, Ky., who was the principal auctioneer, in preliminary remarks, said that he had been in Illinois, Ohio, Nebraska, Missouri, Kentucky, Alabama and Indiana, and that he had not seen the country when it was more beautiful. He also commented on the return of prosperity on the farm, asserting that conditions were more encouraging than they had been at any time since the war. He declared that he was most happy to get back to Indiana and find the farmers in such splendid condition with regard to prospects for a bountiful harvest.

The Woodland farm sale was one of the first of the season and was being closely watched by breeders of pure bred hogs as a criterion to follow. Many tried to discourage Mr.
Trowbridge from holding the sale so early, because of the likelihood of the demand being greater for brood sows later in the season, but the prices received indicate that the demand is strong and that the market for good stock will be exceptionally good.

NEW PROPOSITION RECEIVED

Belgian Debt Funding Delegation Obtains Adjournment For a Day

Washington, Aug. 13—(U.P.)—After receiving a new funding proposition from the American debt funding commission the Belgian delegation today secured an adjournment of the debt meeting until tomorrow in order to communicate it to the government for instructions.

The Belgians today asked the American commission to calculate the accrued interest on the Belgian obligation since its contraction at 3 1/2 or 4 per cent instead of 5 per cent but the Americans refused.

They agreed to reduce it to 4 1/2 per cent as was done for the British, but refused to go below that figure.

TWO WOMEN DIE AS A RESULT OF ACCIDENT

One Steps in Front of Automobile And Shock Proves Fatal to Witness of Fatality

DRIVER SUFFERS COLLAPSE

Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 13—(U.P.)— Two persons are dead and a third is suffering from nervous collapse today as the result of an auto accident last night.

Mrs. Norman Kendrick, 67, was struck on a downtown street by an auto driven by Andrew Forker, 40.
She was fatally hurt and died on the way to a hospital.

Mrs. Blanche Ramsey, 43, standing on the sidewalk near the scene of the accident, died from shock.

Forker was under the care of physicians after the accident, suffering from nervous collapse.

Investigators held him not responsible for the accident. Witnesses said Mrs. Kendrick stopped directly in front of his car.

FINAL ORDERS ISSUED ON INCREASE IN 29 COUNTIES

State Tax Board Will Now Turn Its Attention to Making Tax Levy
For 1926

DECREASE IS PROMISED

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 13—(U.P.)— Final orders on assessment valuations of real estate and personal property in twenty-nine counties of the state, were issued today by the state board of tax commissioners.

The order cleaned up the rest of the cases of fifty-one counties, in which revision of the original assessment figures had been recommended, to the county boards of review by the state tax board.

With the final equalization order disposed of, the state tax board will now take up the task of setting the state tax levy for 1926.

Assurance is given by members of the board that there will be a reduction of the present levy of 23 cents.

Final equalization orders issued today include Decatur, where an increase of three percent on all land and improvement in the entire county was ordered.

ORA LOGAN BARN IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Practically New Structure Built on Site of One Lost in 1922 Struck
By Lightning

20 TONS OF NEW HAY IN LOFT

A large, and practically new barn on the Ora Logan farm, 3 1/2 miles south of Rushville on the New Salem road, was struck by lightning and destroyed by fire shortly after eight o'clock Wednesday night during the severe electrical storm which passed over Rush county.

The loss was estimated by Mr.
Logan at $3,000, which was only partially covered with insurance. He carried $1,200 insurance on the building, and also additional insurance on the contents. The barn cost $2,500 when built less than two years ago.

In April 1922 Mr. Logan suffered a similar loss when the barn was destroyed by lightning, and the barn that was struck last night was rebuilt on the same site.

Mr. Logan was at home at the time and the bolt shook his residence which is located across the road. He made an investigation, believing that the bolt had struck the house. He saw no signs of fire at the barn, and ten minutes later a passing motorist discovered the blaze in the barn.

There had just been 20 tons of new hay placed in the loft, which made a hot fire. There were also 97 bales of hay. Some of the harness was removed. There was no stock in the barn. The loss on the contents was estimated at $500. A pumper was sent from the local fire station, which aided in keeping outbuildings from catching on fire, and the fact that the residence across the road had a slate roof, also protected it.

MUST START SINKING FUND

Bus Owners Ordered to Open Depreciation Account at Once

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 13—(U.P.)—
The state public service commission today issued a special order for all bus owners in the state to start a depreciation sinking fund immediately.

Starting with the first of August, each owner must place at least 2 1/2 percent of gross receipts in the depreciation fund. The fund will provide money for the renewal of all bus equipment every three years.

DIVORCE EVIDENCE ALL IN

Divorce Case of Cong. and Mrs.
Scott Nears The End

Alpena, Mich., Aug. 13—Presentation of testimony in the Scott divorce trial ended at noon today and then a recess taken to allow counsel for both sides to prepare briefs and their final arguments.

Mrs. Edna James Scott, wife of Congressman James Scott of Michigan, was the last witness. She made a denial of all charges of misbehavior made by her husband who is seeking a divorce. Mrs. Scott, who was on the stand a few minutes, was preceded by her husband and Miss Jane Kennedy, his secretary.

Scott denied charges of misbehavior made by his wife.

SAYS AMERICA IS LEADER OVER ALL

Sam W. Small, in Chautauqua Address, Sums up the Importance of God in Directing America

THE MOSES NATION OF ALL

Declares That God Directed America Into World War, and Also Brought About Prohibition

"America has taken the leadership of all the nations, by command of God," declared Sam W. Small, the southern evangelist, who addressed the Rush County Chautauqua Wednesday afternoon on the subject, "America, the Moses Nation of the Age."

Dr. Small, with a chronological history of America, pointed out step after step in which Divine guidance played the important role, and which showed that America was the nation chosen by God to take the leadership in all things.

In this respect, he eulogized the American flag, as being the oldest flag on the face of the earth. Nation after nation, he said, had adopted flags, but they had fallen to the wayside, change by conquest or different emblems adopted.

"But America," he pointed out,
"has a flag that has gone unchanged since its birth, 150 years ago. God decreed it to be so, and nothing could change it." The Providence of God, he declared, has protected the flag through many encounters.

"The richest people that the world has ever known is America," he said. "There is more wealth per capita in this country than in any country on the face of the globe." The annual income is sixty billion dollars.

Dr. Small pointed out that the war debt is eleven billion dollars, and people are seeking to have it paid. He stated that this debt could be wiped off, and no one would be affected. In a humorous manner, he stated that because this money was due the United States, it did not prevent the women last year from spending $70,000,000 for cosmetics, and the debt didn't prevent people from buying tickets to chautauquas.
"It is so little as compared with our total wealth," he said.

God intended this nation to be wealthy, the speaker asserted. The wealth played an important part in the great war, as America was called upon at the time when the allies were about exhausted.

He reviewed the great war at length, to show the important part that America was called upon at the time.

LIGHT OPERA AGAIN AT THE CHAUTAUQUA

Tooley Opera Company Here Today

TWO BIG DAYS ARE LEFT

Thunder Storm Interferes With Performance of Little American Opera Company

8:30 p. m.—Grand Concert, Chief Caulpolean.

The second day of light opera was in store for patrons of the Rush county chautauqua today, with the Tooley Opera company booked for two appearances, and a change is in store Friday when the Marimbaphone sextette comes for two pre-ludes.

The Little American Opera company, in spite of the handicap of a thunder storm during most of the night performance, made a very credible program, the distinguished feature of which was the stage setting and costuming.

The Tooley company will offer "Chimes of Normandy," a tuneful light opera, tonight. Their first appearance was a prelude this afternoon, followed by a lecture by Senator W. N. Ferris of Michigan.

Friday will be an outstanding day of the chautauqua, it is believed by those familiar with the talent this year, because of an afternoon lecture and night concert, in addition to the two appearances of the Marimbaphone sextette.

The postlude of the Little American Opera company Wednesday afternoon was a delightful program of familiar numbers that pleased immensely. The artistic effect of the night performance was lost to a considerable extent because of the interference of the storm, which made people in the audience restless and not at all receptive.

The scenic arrangement was by far the most magnificent that any company ever used at the local chautauqua, and the elaborateness of the costumes added to the beauty of the entertainment. The stage setting was a garden and the four singers with the company appeared

FREE CHAUTAUQUA FOR MILROY IS GUARANTEED

Sum of $1150 is Pledged to Pay Next Year's Expenses at Close of This Year's Program

PAGEANT WAS CALLED OFF

Another chautauqua for Milroy was assured Wednesday night, at the close of this year's chautauqua, when $300 was pledged, making a total of $1150 which has been raised to meet the expenses of the assembly next summer.

Eight hundred and fifty dollars was raised Tuesday night and the balance obtained at the close of the chautauqua last night.

The pageant to be given by the junior leader at the chautauqua had to be called off last night because of the storm. Many parents of children who were in the pageant left, taking their children with them, and not enough were left to go ahead with the program after the rain ceased.

The storm interfered with the program, just as it did in Rushville, and the program had to be discontinued for a short time. The tent was crowded and those who could not keep out of the rain left.

The Old Town quartet gave a program of songs and closed with a playlet that was given a big ovation.
The lecture Wednesday afternoon was delivered by A. D. Kontz on the subject, "The Heroic Present."

VIEW OF CAMP ACTIVITIES

Some conception of what is in store for the 79 Rush county boys and girls going to the tri-county club camp at Walnut Grove, in Shelby county, next week, may be obtained from the above picture taken at the Fountain county club camp.

The picture shows W. W. Mendenhall of the state Y. M. C. A. giving a lecture on development of the head, heart and hands. The emblem of club work is a four leaf clover with an H on each leaf. The fourth H stands for health.

Mr. Mendenhall showed the boys and girls by a series of illustrated talks, methods of developing the mind, spirit and body that will build a character which will stand staunch and true. No other phase of instruction is more important than this character building feature. To influence aright the ideals and motives of our young people will do much to develop in a constructive way the future citizenship of America. This part of the instruction appeals strongly to the boys and girls and shows that they can be approached and influenced as to the finer things of life.

MAY YET BE A CINDERELLA

Mary Spas Has Chance to Come In to All Browning Promised Her

New York, Aug. 13.—(U.S.)—Mary Spas may yet achieve the Cinderella right, to which she aspires, a statement prepared by Edward W. Browning indicated today.

If the girl who was adopted by the millionaire and then returned to her Astoria home, conducts herself with propriety and heeds advice of those who wish her well, according to the statement, she can have most of the things promised her by her foster father of a week.

Brown had foreseen a mental breakdown on Mary's part, even before her half-hearted attempt to commit suicide and when he tried to send her to a sanitarium. The girl became frightened when she heard the word sanitarium and refused to go.

SHOOTS HUSBAND

South Bend, Ind., Aug. 13.—Mrs. Mary Brown, 28, was held today charged with shooting and seriously wounding her husband, Joseph Brown, a traffic policeman. She claimed she grabbed the revolver and started to shoot herself when her husband ordered her to leave the house during a quarrel. In the struggle the gun was discharged.

LIGHT OPERA AGAIN AT THE CHAUTAUQU

as a nightingale, turtle dove, black bird and red-headed woodchuck. They were assisted by Miss Margaret Guffin, Miss Marion Kinsinger, Miss Florence Lambert and Miss Rosalyn Reed, who appeared in one scene.

Chief Caupolecan, who comes for a grand concert Friday night, is a South American Indian, hailing from the Aurocene tribe, of which his father was a totem or tribal chief. His mother, a Frenchwoman, took young Caupolecan to Paris, where he received his early education. Besides being able to speak English with the utmost fluency, he also converses in French, Spanish, German and Italian with equal ease.

A musical authority heard him and advised him to take up the vocal art, so Caupolecan hid himself again to Paris and gave himself up to arduous study. After a year or two he considered himself ready for an operatic career. But opera refused to accept him the powers-that-be at the Metropolitan advising still further effort.

So he took up vaudeville and for years was a prominent feature of the two-a-day, during which time he studied singing at every opportunity. After half a dozen years of this he again essayed grand opera, and this time with success. For three years he sang baritone roles in America's leading temple of the operatic arts, the Metropolitan, New York.

Until a comparatively few years ago the Marimbaphone was an unknown instrument in the musical life of America. Some foreseeing manager brought a company of South Americans to this country some time ago, to give our people a taste of native South American music as played on the native instruments. The result exceeded all expectations and the marimbaphone has won a fixed place on our musical calendar along with other musical importations from across the seas.

The Marimbaphone Sextette combines the marimbaphone work with two xylophones and the result, in the estimation of competent critics, surpasses the popular effect of a straight marimbaphone ensemble. The six young artists who manipulate the marimbaphone and xylophones are thorough musicians, in every sense of the word and long training in their ensemble efforts has enabled them to offer some very fine effects.

In addition to the marimbaphone and xylophone work, the young men dabble in other instrumentalities so that the program is a rare combination of many fine musical features. The music lover who wants variety in his program will most certainly get an "earful" when the Marimbaphone Sextette comes to town.

Still Greater Quality; New Lower Prices

While the motoring public acclaims the Chrysler Six as the most phenomenal car ever built, Walter P. Chrysler announces notable improvements in quality—of materials, of performance, of craftsmanship, of equipment, of design.

Greater Power—Increased cylinder bore resulting in approximately 10 per cent more torque, giving 70 miles per hour with greater ease and quickness than ever before.

Faster Acceleration—5 to 25 miles in 7 seconds, power enough to climb the steepest grades and push through deepest mud or sand, from refined power plant with a still larger crankshaft of 50 per cent greater torsional rigidity.

Remarkable Fuel Economy—Carburetion improved to deliver 20 and more miles per gallon of gasoline, notwithstanding increased power and faster acceleration.

Improved Rear Axle—Ring gears and pinions are larger; differential carrier heavier to handle increased engine power.

Distinctive Color Combinations—Body colors, in duco, are the most attractive and tasteful ever offered. Chrysler-designed, Fisher-built closed bodies are further refined; attractively low and gracefully rounded.

Extraordinary Equipment—Chrysler equipment is of a quality and completeness rarely found on any car—even the highest priced. It includes Purolator, which filters all dirt from crankcase oil as the motor runs; Watson Stabilizers, the most efficient and most costly device of its type to absorb the shock of road irregularities; air-cleaner, which removes all road dirt and dust from air entering the engine; thermostatic control of water heat for most efficient operation; Chrysler-Lockheed hydraulic four-wheel brakes which provide utmost safety control; Spartan "SOS" electric horn; duco durable body finish; balloon tires.

Two years ago, Chrysler predicted that the Chrysler Six would change the whole trend of motor car design, engineering, manufacture and equipment.

Today the industry is celebrating advanced improvements features which Chrysler introduced and which made the Chrysler Six the outstanding quality car in all the world.

Today, while others proclaim Chrysler Six features of two years ago, Chrysler strides forward to new limits of quality, of performance results, of advanced engineering.

Chrysler Six owners the world over do not forget these truths:—

Two years ago, Chrysler pioneered the compact, roomy car, combining comfort and ease of riding, without wasteful weight or extravagant size.

Two years ago, Chrysler introduced a new ratio of horse-power per pound of weight. The Chrysler Six is today the only car in the world which gives a speed of 70 miles per hour and more, combined with gasoline economy of better than 20 miles per gallon.

Two years ago, Chrysler created the first double-tone color combinations and re-created American taste in motor car finish.

Two years ago, Chrysler pioneered Purolator—the oil-filter which cleanses your crankcase oil as the motor runs.

Two years ago, Chrysler advanced an entirely new design in bodies, and today

Chrysler-designed closed bodies are all executed by Fisher.

Two years ago, Chrysler initiated the four-wheel hydraulic brake trend. The Chrysler Six was the first car to have, as standard equipment, these self-equalizing brakes of super-safety.

Two years ago, Chrysler Six provided, as standard equipment, the air-cleaner which keeps dust and dirt out of your engine.

Two years ago, Chrysler gave thermostatic control of motor heat to assure greatest working efficiency.

Two years ago, Chrysler eliminated side-sway by a new method of spring suspension exclusive to the Chrysler Six.

Today, the new developments initiated by Chrysler quality have not yet brought any other car abreast of the Chrysler Six of two years ago.

And meanwhile, Chrysler has developed new measures of manufacturing fineness, new features of extraordinary equipment, new superiorities of performance and new standards of riding and driving ease now available in the new Chrysler Six at new low prices.

Discriminating buyers are naturally refusing to go back to the Chrysler standards of two years ago. They seek the Chrysler standards of today. That is why Chrysler sales are reaching new high peaks each month.

Expressive Words

The purists frown on slang, no matter how expressive it may be. The principal objection to slang appears to be that it is of questionable parentage.

This is to be inferred from a university lecturer who expressed great regret that dumb-bell had not been originated by some literary genius so that it would now be accepted as the best of English.

Of course, it would then cease to be slang, and by the same token, it would probably not be so popular and used with so much relish by the man in the street.

The fact is that many words and phrases now labeled slang may have been originated by literary men who did not appreciate their value until their popularity and diffusion made it too late for them to be convincing in their claims at origination.

"Get the picture?" is an expressive term that is an orphan in the literary world, yet it fits when you want to ask the question, "do you understand?" For certainly we understand nothing until we have a mental picture of the subject.

The principal objection to slang is in its being overdone, but many words and phrases with such humble and ignominious origin have come to be regarded as good English.

Slang is persistent. It is a social climber and it often gets into good society, the purists notwithstanding. If it expresses the meaning one wishes to convey better than any other word or group of words, it shouldn't be condemned.

Judge Sparks' Selection

The selection of Judge Will M. Sparks of Rushville to act as judge in the trial of D. C. Stephenson and his two alleged accomplices, for murder, is a very distinct tribute to his ability as a jurist.

Out of about seventy-five circuit judges in Indiana, he was designated as one of three first under consideration, and he was the choice of the attorneys in the case, because of their faith in his impartiality and their knowledge that he was eminently well qualified to pass on any legal controversy arising.

Judge Sparks has frequently been called upon to sit as special judge in cases where large issues are involved, and his selection in this instance further manifests the high place he holds as a judge in Indiana.

Few trials in this state have ranked with the Stephenson trial in importance. The attorneys, because of the grave issues involved, wanted a judge grounded in the law and qualified to pass on them.

Rush county is to be congratulated on having such a man on the bench and the people of the county will rejoice in the fact that he has been given deserved recognition.

The Legislative Flood

Reviewing the work of legislatures in different states there is a ray of light—in a few the high water mark of new laws has been reached and flood is receding.

The Illinois legislature that adjourned the other day enacted only 362 new laws and 38 of these were appropriation and enabling acts.

In spite of having hundreds of statutes that are absolutely dead letters on the law books, Illinois added 280 more rules of conduct.

But the tide has turned and the Illinois legislature enacted 56 less bills than were ground out in the legislative mill two years before.

Several other states have made a similar record and it must be a satisfactory feeling to know that as time goes on, not only fewer new laws may be enacted, but more and more old ones may be repealed.

John Boyd cleaned up about everything in sight at the Henry county fair in New Castle this week with his Jersey cattle. Sweepstakes were no object to him and he generally took a light and a second whatever he had as an entry.

Fearlessly jumping on a big wagon which was being dragged by a runaway team, belonging to Jesse Rutherford, Ben Sparks finally stopped the frightened horses yesterday afternoon about three o'clock near the corner of Morgan and Ninth streets.

The intense heat in the chaletauqua tent yesterday afternoon during the Bryan lecture caused Miss Nellie McMillin and Mrs. Frank Cross to faint. They were soon revived.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Payne and sons Wallace and Lawrence and Mrs. Frank Payne have gone to Muskoka District of Ontario, Canada, to spend the remainder of the summer.

E. L. Kennedy and family have gone to Liberty to visit relatives and to attend the sessions of the Baptist Association near there. They made the trip in their automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse French, Sr., of St. Louis and Mr. and Mrs. H. Edgar French of New Castle were here yesterday in their automobile for the chaletauqua.

Connersville News: Harold Miller of Rushville came here today for a short visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lambert.

Miss Jessie Carter returned to her home last night from a three weeks' visit with her brother, T. L. Carter and family in Seymour, Ind.

Mrs. Frank Hayes of Greensburg went to Milroy Thursday to visit Mrs. William Martin for a few days. William Kramer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kramer, is indisposed at their home in North Harrison street.

The six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lot Holman is ill at their home, south of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morelock of near Carthage entertained at dinner yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schaeffer and daughters, Grace and Ruth, and William Schaeffer of Auburn, Pa.

Miss Leota Earnest and Virgil J. McBride were married Thursday afternoon at the Christian church parsonage by the Rev. R. W. Aberley.

Stewart's Washington Letter

BY CHARLES P. STEWART

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—What the next war will be like nobody knows.

Military men say they do—doubtless think so. But they disagree.

Different schools of experts predict half a dozen or more entirely different kinds of fighting. Their predictions conflict, too.

There's no way of adding them up, dividing by the total number of predictions and striking an average.

ACCORDING to military fundametalists the next war will be about the same old thing: Armies, with infantry as their backbone, will fight on land. Navies with battleships as their backbone will fight at sea. Aircraft will figure more than ever before but only as army and navy auxiliaries, after all. Warfare's principles haven't changed a bit.

ACCORDING to the aviation school the next war will be fought in the air. Aircraft will wipe out armies and navies in big time. The country with the strongest flying force will have the enemy at its mercy before he realizes a fight's started.

His surface defenses and defenses destroyed, his cities will be bombed, his countryside harried and he'll have to yield without having had a chance to strike a blow.

ACCORDING to the chemical school, gas will decide the next war. It may be outlawed but it will be used.

Whole armies will be gassed in their trenches. Crews will be gassed on ships at sea. The populations of cities will perish similarly. Airplanes will be convenient for raining down death thus but their ammunition will be chemical.

These aren't all the schools—only some of the principal ones. With so much disagreement among them, what's a nation, dependent on their advice, to do?

Build up an all-round military establishment, to suit the whole outfit? That's a large order.

A navy, for instance, is expensive. If it's to be destroyed, first shot out of the bottle, by aircraft, it would be better to scrap it and concentrate on aircraft.

Yet suppose the country does that, and then the aviation school turns out to be mistaken. That would be bad business, too.

Well, it's up to the experts to fight it out the best they can.

A couple always at odds soon comes to odds and ends.

When you see a tree torn down these days you never know if it was lightning or an axe.

Next to the water cooler and the soda fountain the bath tub is our most popular summer resort.

The good die young. Just as soon as home-made wine begins to get good its owner kills it.

United States exports of apples to England are increasing. They like our applesauce.

It's probably just as well Congress isn't in session. Otherwise, a special committee would now be cross-examining that earthquake.

TROUBLE BUTTS IN

"THIS IS GOING TO BE SOME VACATION IF THE TYTE'S ARE GOING WITH US—I'LL BET THEY'LL TRIM THEIR FINGER NAILS SO CLOSE THEY WON'T BE ABLE TO PICK UP THE MEAL CHECK WHEN WE GET TO A HOTEL"

SAYS AMERICA IS LEADER OVER ALL

time when the allies were about exhausted.

He reviewed the great war at length, to show the important part that America was called upon to do. "America did not join that war, it was God who pushed them into it," he said. "When the foreign powers were fighting each other, we were determined to keep out of it. Why you mothers were going around singing 'I didn't raise my boy to be a soldier'."

"Then in 1916 an election came along and still we were not going to take any part in that war. A great many of you democrats and even myself, and some of you republicans remember the campaign slogan of Woodrow Wilson, 'He kept us out of war,' and we voted him into office."

"But when those election returns reached Heaven, God probably smiled and pushed them into the trash heap, or some place else, because the votes hadn't anymore than been counted, until America went into that great struggle. It was the providence of God, and not our desires."

He followed that war from the start, showing the important places where America stepped in, not only with its wealth, and her man power, but in all departments which made it necessary to win the war. "God intended us to do that," he said.

"America, the Moses nation of the age, has taken the leadership over all nations, by command of God," he declared. For forty years an effort was made to stamp out liquor, and make America a sober nation, he said.

"We still find men, the 'has-beens' and left evers of saloons, sitting around court houses and other places on soap boxes, dismissing who made the country go dry. They blame the preachers, the W. T. C. U. congress and all other agencies, but I want to tell you that prohibition in this country was not brought about by long haired preachers or short haired women, but through the providence of God. It was His way and His desire to see America become the Moses nation of the age."

Business For Professionals

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Aug. 13.—There is so much bunk written about the lives of professional baseball players and boxers that it is refreshing to hear an occasional hero come out and tell the truth about his business.

The first line written about a new ring champion concerns the great love that he has for his mother, as if love of a mother is so unusual that it should be worthy of comment.

The next line always concerns the way the fighter started in his racket and it always tells the same story. He was brought up in the tenements where he had to fight the bully of the block or stay in the tenement and that he took up professional fighting because he liked it.

Filial devotion isn't considered so extraordinary in baseball that it should be featured in writing about a hero of the diamond, but the big star always got his start on the corner lot and succeeded in getting to the top because of a consuming love for the grand old national game.

It is refreshing to hear a nice, mild-mannered youngster like Charley Rosenburg, the bantamweight champion of the world, tell the truth about his purpose in becoming a professional fighter.

"I didn't have to fight as a kid, and I wasn't born in a tough tenement district," Rosenburg says. "I took up fighting because I thought it was the quickest way for a boy with a limited education to make money. I'm staying in the boxing game just for a stake. I'm not in love with the business and I want to get out of it as soon as I have enough money to set me up in a good real estate business. I've got a little money now and I'm already building up a business. I'm going to save my money and I won't have any regrets when I'm through."

Another who blasts popular romance that is painted around a baseball hero is Earl McNeely, the young outfield star of the Washington Senators, whose hit won the last world's series against the New York Giants.

McNeely admits that he has no consuming love for baseball and that he is in the game purely for business reasons. He wasn't born with a baseball in his hands. He didn't play on the sand lots and didn't play at all until he was nineteen years old.

"When I had a chance to play professional baseball," he says, "I went into it only because I wanted to get a bankroll. I took a course in civil engineering and worked some in a bank, but found out that those who succeeded quickest in any pro-session were those who started out with a bankroll and it is the old bankroll that I'm after."

Abe Goldstein, even when he was the bantamweight champion, never admitted that he liked the professional ring. He, too, said it was the big money that came quick that started him in the game and is keeping him there."

TAIL LIGHTS TO TAKE TO ROAD

Will Play Batesville, Worthy Opponent, Next Sunday Afternoon

The Rushville Tail Lights will take the road Sunday and go down to Batesville to meet the team of that city. These teams have met before and are regarded as about evenly matched. A few weeks ago when Batesville played here, the score was 1 to 0 in their favor, with their lone run being caused by a home run in the ninth inning. Several machine loads of Rushville people will make the trip to Batesville Sunday.

The team in that city will line-up as follows: Wintz, 3b; Lahring, cf; Hahn, lf; Bloemer, c; Boehmer, 2b; Wernke, 1b; Volz, ss; Engel, rf and Neimen, p.

KEEPING ONE EYE
ON THE SCORE BOARD

Yesterday's Hero: Jack Quinn, veteran pitcher, held the Browns safe all the way and knocked in two runs with a single that helped to win his own game, 5 to 2.

Herb Pennock held the White Sox to two hits and drove in one run with a triple, the Yankees winning, 2 to 0.

Helped by the stupid base running of Meusel and Kelly, the Pirates beat the Giants 5 to 3 and increased their lead to 5½ games.

The Cards nosed the Robins out of fourth place in the National League by a fraction of a point when they took a doubleheader from the Phillies, 9 to 2 and 8 to 4.

Erratic fielding by Detroit enabled the Red Sox to win 7 to 2. Eberhardt held the Reds to three hits and the Robins won 5 to 1.

SPORT CHATTER

Warsaw, Ind.—A. S. Denny, Long Beach, Calif., went into the lead in the national roque tournament here by virtue of a 32-0 victory of Lester Clark, Chicago, in the last match yesterday. Clark was undefeated in previous rounds.

San Antonio, Tex.—Lyman Nason, San Antonio, Texas League left fielder, stole three bases in one trip to bat in the sixth inning of the first game of a San Antonio-Beaumont doubleheader here yesterday. After singling, Nason stole second, third and home.

FIGHTS AND FIGHTERS

Atlantic City, N. J.—Harry Greb, world's middleweight champion, knocked out Pat Walsh, Kansas City in the second round.

Louisville—Jack Johnson, negro, former heavyweight champion, was arrested late yesterday at Shelbyville, and fined $10 for speeding.

HOME RUN LEADERS

Hornsby, Cardinals 30
Williams, Browns 24
Hartnett, Cubs 24
Meusel, Yankees 23
Bottenley, Cards 19.

CLINIC FOR CHILDREN TO BE HELD AT STATE FAIR

Dr. E. I. Wooden, County Health Commissioner, Notified of Plan by Riley Hospital Administrator

FOR PROSPECTIVE PATIENTS

Dr. E. I. Wooden, county health commissioner, has received a communication from R. E. Neff, administrator of the James Whitcomb Riley hospital for children at Indianapolis, in which attention is called to the fact that a clinic will be conducted at the state fair September 7 to 11, in connection with the exhibit of Indiana University.

The purpose of the clinic, according to the message, will make it possible to have prospective patients for the hospital examined to determine the possibilities as to benefits which may be derived from cure and treatment at the hospital.

The clinic will be conducted each afternoon of the state fair, during the hours of from one to five o'clock.

The message in part states: "Doubtless there are parents of handicapped children in your community who will be glad to avail themselves of the service which the clinic will offer and to learn of the Riley hospital. Children examined at the clinic and found to be in need of hospital treatment, will be referred back to the judge of the county in which the child has legal residence, with the idea that commitment to the hospital shall be handled by the judge in the regular form."

"Jimbo's Millions"
Just what complications the habit of being late at appointments can get a man into is shown in vivid and amusing detail in "Jimbo's Millions," the latest F. B. O. picture, starring Richard Talmadge, which is now showing at the Castle theatre. The new production featuring the agile and spectacular young star is by all odds the best in which he has been seen—and that is saying a lot. A fine cast, a good story, and excellent direction have combined to make this a real entertainment treat. Betty Francisco and Lee Moran give the star superb support, as indeed do Charles Clary, Brinsley Shaw, Dick Sutherland, Ina Hanson and Wade Boteler.

Monte Blue at Princess
In "The Lover of Camille," which opened yesterday at the Princess Theatre, local film enthusiasts are offered screen entertainment far and away out of the ordinary.
This picture is the screen version of the Sacha Guitry play, which was a hit in London, they repeated on Broadway as a David Belasco production. By arrangement with Belasco, it was made into a Warner Bros. Classic of the Screen, with Monte Blue and Marie Prevost heading the cast.

Those who remember the Sacha Guitry play recall that there were two Deburas. Terrence "Pat" Moore plays the younger Deburas; Marie Prevost portrays the part of Marie Duplessis, the Lady of the Camellias. Willard Louis plays Robillard, friend and comrade to the famous actor. Rosa Rosanova, the Russian actress who specializes

NOW COMES THE

MAGNUTROL

Price $65

Can Be Bought on Easy Payments

Magnus comes now with the "Magnutrol," a five-tube compensated radio-frequency set. A new development in radio reception, it deserves the consideration of one who desires the utmost in receiving apparatus.

The Magnus Magnutrol is not the result of chance. It is the product of an organization where for six years better electrical apparatus has been manufactured. The Magnus trade mark stands for quality and the Magnutrol is an embodiment of months of scientific and electrical research in receiving apparatus and represents a true quality product at a remarkably fair price. The Magnutrol is selective, efficient, economical in cost, and withal, it combines in its outward appearance the careful and artistic touch of the master craftsman.

To see and hear the Magnutrol is to feel the urge of possession. I will be glad to demonstrate it and tell you more of its good features.
